

Region 4 “Fact Sheet”

Land status at a glance Total acres of region 902,904

Surface Management	No. of ~Acres
Indian Reservation	30,389
Bureau of Land Management	38,113
Bureau of Reclamation	4,833
Forest Service	167,137
State Trust Lands	185,637
State Parks	286
National Monuments	0
Military	2,673
Private	88,185
Developed	37,910
Pinal County Proposed Open Space	108,067
Pinal County Parks/ Proposed Regional Parks	60/10,672
Wilderness	73,178
TNC Conservation Priority	122,708
Conservation Easement/Mitigation (includes Federal, State, County, City and Privately Protected Lands)	0

Current conditions

- Local governments: Marana
- Unincorporated communities: Oracle, Oracle Junction, Red Rock, Friendly Corners
- Indian Communities: Tohono O’odham
- Major transportation corridors: I-10, 77, 79, UP railroad
- Major landmarks, natural features, places of interest: Sonoran Desert National Monument, Table Top Wilderness Area, Ironwood Forest National Monument, Santa Cruz River, CAP, Picacho Peak State Park, Oracle State Park , Biosphere II.
- Wildlife corridors (see Wildlife Linkages maps)
- Special status species (see FWS county lists)

Future Conditions

- Large (>40 acres) conceptual, proposed, or platted developments: ?
- Proposed utility corridors:
 - Pinal Central Substation to Tortolita Substation 500kv transmission line project (multiple alternatives from LaPalma to Tortolita on both sides of Picacho Peak State Park-see map);
 - SunZia Southwest Transmission Project (multiple alternative routes-see map)
- Proposed alternative energy projects: ?
- Proposed or potential railway facilities: New and expansion of existing freight lines and new commuter rail service (reference ADOT BQAZ 2010 Statewide Rail Framework Study).
- Potential roadways: New freeway from Apache Junction to Eloy/Picacho currently being evaluated, other new paved roadways, and the expansion/upgrading of existing roads (reference BQAZ 2010 Statewide Transportation Planning Framework).